

The Regency

The Regency is a stunning quadrilateral shaped conservatory available in eighteen stylish colours. This style of conservatory gives a traditional look and is ideal for all types of houses and floor space. The Regency is as functional as it is alluring and can add a sense of style to any building. The large roof space will benefit from every ray of sunshine. So bright and so warming there will be no better room in the house for basking, relaxing or entertaining, a haven of natural light. The sheer versatility and light airy nature makes the Regency an addition unlike any other, it adds style and tradition to any house.
